Character profiles from It Started With a Kiss ©Miranda Dickinson 2011

Role in The Pinstripes

Drummer

Favourite album

Mint Jam by the Yellowjackets. It's a classic – have you heard it? You haven't? You're seriously missing out.

Favourite food

Anything that Tom cooks. He's a genius in the kitchen.

How would you describe yourself?

Suave, sophisticated, devilishly handsome... no, I'm joking. I'm pretty confident, like a good laugh and love my friends. I can be competitive, especially when I'm with the guys (seriously, don't take me on in a bike race – you will lose!) But I like to think I'm a good friend, a good listener and, at the risk of sounding like an idiot, someone you would like to hang out with.

What would be your dream gig?

I'd love to play Ronnie Scott's with the guys.

What do you think about Romily's quest?

That's a difficult one because obviously she's my mate and I want her to be happy but I'm not sure this bloke is worth finding. I mean, who kisses a girl and then legs it? I don't know if it's a bit of a reaction because of the thing that happened with us last Christmas, perhaps. If I'm really honest, I don't think either of us have dealt with that yet and maybe if we do then this quest of hers will become redundant...
